

Katerina Kaloudi
«Invisible Contacts»

Preview evening, Tuesday 16 September 2008, 8.00pm
Zoumboulakis Galleries, Kolonaki Square, Athens. Greece

Zoumboulakis Galleries proudly present «Invisible Contacts», a solo show by Katerina Kaloudi, opening on Tuesday 16 September and continuing until 4 October 2008.

The exhibition hosts a series of different size photographs, inspired, as the artist states, by the “cycladic sculptured rock forms” in a moment of a silent dialogue between herself and the landscape.

The results of this contact, these rock-shaped figures, underline, as Kaloudi comments, her quest for not a mere image but for a feeling, an emotion that takes place in a solitary moment between the self and its surroundings.

Sponsors:

Exhibition duration: 16 September – 4 October 2008

Zoumboulakis Galleries, 20 Kolonaki Square

Opening times: Tue – Fri 11.00 -14.00 & 18.00–21.00, Sat 11.00 – 14.00

The Gallery is closed on Sunday & Monday

Brief biographical note:

Katerina Kaloudi was born in Athens. She studied Mathematics and Art at Hamilton College, New York, and Photography at the Royal College of Art in London; she graduated with the “Prize of Excellence” in 1986. She photographed for leading Greek businesses and has traveled throughout Greece and abroad, publishing her photographs in numerous magazines and books. She has participated in many exhibitions and her work belongs to private collections in Greece and England.

 Zoumboulakis Galleries

20 Kolonaki Square, 10673, Athens / Tel. +30 2103608278 / Fax. +30 2103631364 / galleries@zoumboulakis.gr